Leaving family protection vague.

Life insurance, final expense, beneficiaries, and documents should line up, but most families never sit down and check. This guide gives you a simple way to see what is handled and what is not.

Use this guide to answer one question at a time.

No walls of text. No pressure. Just the facts, checklists, and notes you need for a better retirement conversation.

THE BIGGEST QUESTION I WANT ANSWERED

Is My Family Protection Organized?

QUESTION

This is not legal advice. Use the checklist to decide what to review with qualified professionals.

- ☐ Beneficiaries are current on life insurance, retirement accounts, and annuities.
- ☐ My spouse or family knows where important documents are stored.
- ☐ I have reviewed final expense needs and funeral preferences.
- ☐ I have considered power of attorney and health care directive documents.
- ☐ My will or trust has been reviewed recently.
- ☐ My emergency contacts and account list are updated.
- ☐ I know who should be involved in a family planning conversation.

ONE FAMILY PROTECTION TASK TO FINISH FIRST

Check each item that feels mostly handled. Your score is a starting point for the next conversation.

- ☐ My beneficiary information is current.
- ☐ My spouse or family understands the plan.
- ☐ I have a 90-day action plan for what is left.
